Description of Program: This mature solo private practice is located outside of San Francisco in Silicon Valley. The practice is entirely dedicated to aesthetic surgery with an emphasis on facial rejuvenation and body contouring surgery and houses a full-service skin care program. All surgeries are conducted in a private, in-office operating room. The office also supports a charitable foundation for the delivery of reconstructive surgery to the uninsured and is actively involved in residency education at both the Stanford and UCSF plastic surgery program. Visiting residents and fellows are always welcome and encouraged to participate in the writing of clinical scientific papers.
