Description of Fellowship: Ocean Clinic is located in Marbella in the south of Spain. The Clinic is entirely dedicated to aesthetic surgery with an emphasis on facial rejuvenation and body contouring surgery. The Clinic has medical spa services and a skin care program. More than 400 surgeries per year are conducted in a private, in-office operating room. The Clinic also supports a charitable foundation in Kenya and provides services there once a year and is actively involved in residency education. Visiting residents and fellows are always welcome and encouraged to participate in the writing of clinical scientific papers.
